

Nothing At All

Bob Moses

You've given in and let them through
To follow them you follow too
You lose the voice that leads the way
When all the words just sound the same
The houses hum and sirens sing
The static behind everything
The crowd you seek has put you down
So listen in and let it out
Because what they say don't mean nothing at all
They say it don't mean nothing at all
What they say don't mean nothing at all
It don't mean nothing at all
So this is what it's coming to
To follow them or follow through
Down the rabbit hole you sink
That they won't ever let you be
Because what they say, don't mean nothing at all
What they say it don't mean nothing at all
What they say don't mean nothing at all
It don't mean nothing at all
