

She Ain't Me

Sinead Harnett

We built these walls of steel, and what a waste of time
You went ahead and made them crumble in just one night
I give, she takes, I bend, you break
This love, but thank god
'Cause if she's gonna give you more
She's gonna take the heat
But baby I guess she's better
Better than I'll ever be
It seems she made you bad
You gave her the key
Guess you belong together
'Cause everybody else can see
That baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me
I count my lucky stars above each day I swing
That there's no me and you
There's only you and her
Your loss, my gain, your biggest mistakes So let me go, but thank god
'Cause if she's gonna give you more
She's gonna take the heat
But baby I guess she's better
Better than I'll ever be
It seems she made you bad
You gave her the key
Guess you belong together
'Cause everybody else can see
That baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, ooooh
Go ahead and have her, darling
But don't run back to me
When you find out what she's about
There'll be no loyalty
Thank god she came between us

Show me you can't be true
You've lost the best, there's nothing left no, for you
'Cause if she's gonna give you more
But baby I guess she's better
You gave her the key
That baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
Baby she ain't me, yeah
