

Want Me Back

BENEE

Tell me what you want from me, boy
Why you gotta act so needy?
Maybe you were what I'm missing
Maybe I crave your affection
Everything you say, cuts me, boy
Why don't you just let me heal you?
Why do I feel like I'm searching?
Without you, boy, I feel nothing
Tear me down, you hurt me
Change your mind, want me again
Playin' with my heart in utter boredom
Hide again
Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe
(Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe)
Longing for my company, hey
(Longing for my company, hey)
You're pushing me 'round
Look at what I'm left with now, boy
Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe
(Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe)
Longing for my company, hey
(Longing for my company, hey)
You're pushing me 'round
Look at what I'm left with now, boy
I can see you kind of need me
You've been having trouble sleepin'
Maybe we are meant to be here
Maybe I want us to happen
Sometimes I wish you would leave and
We would never speak again, but
Then there's something 'bout you, boy, I
I kinda [?] for you
Tear me down, you hurt me
Change your mind, want me again
Playin' with my heart in utter boredom
Again
Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe
(Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe)
Longing for my company, hey
(Longing for my company, hey)
You're pushing me 'round
Look at what I'm left with now, boy
Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe
(Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe)
Longing for my company, hey
(Longing for my company, hey)
You're pushing me 'round

Look at what I'm left with now, boy Too late to apologize
Movin' on now, with other guys
Deleted all your messages
You're nothing but lies in my head
Should've never hurt me, boy
Wasted your shot
Now I have moved on Tell me that I'm all that you need, babe
(Tell me that I'm all that you need)
Longing for my company, hey
(Longing for my company, hey)
You're pushing me 'round
(Pushin' me around)
