

Sewing Skylines to Shores

Iris Lune

[Verse 1]

He lets the water run him over
Feels the limpid stream uncover
Hands held wide, head to tail
And the sun soaks him gently
Waiting for answers

[Chorus]

Here, here I go
Sewing skylines to shores
I'm going under, it swallows me whole
I let the ripples rip me open

[Verse 2]

Curled in the waves, eyes flutter softly
Feels the liquid fill him with clarity
Hands held close, hard to take
And the breeze rocks him lightly
Pulling him under

[Chorus]

Here, here I go
Sewing skylines to shores
I'm going under, it swallows me whole
I let the ripples rip me open

[Verse 3]

Stones at his feet, gravity hits hard
The salt and the seaweed are draping his heart
Mind hold still, hands 'til tale
And the water runs over
Morning sinks in

[Chorus]

Here, here I go
Sewing skylines to shores
I'm going under, it swallows me whole
I let the ripples rip me open
Here I go
Sewing skylines to shores

I'm going under, it swallows me whole
I let the ripples rip me open
I let the ripples rip me open
