

Born To Rage (feat. Sebastian Bach)

Dada Life

What if your heart said "You ain't got nothing to lose"
(What if your heart said)
What if your heart said "Never play by the rules"
(Yeaaaaah)
What if your heart said "Dawn of a brand new age"
(What if your heart said)
What if your heart said "Baby you were born to rage"
(Yeaaaaah)It's your time and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
You were born to rage
It's your life and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
Show your face you were born to rage so come on!
Show your face you were born to rage so come on!What if your heart said "Be who you wanna be"
(What if your heart said)
What if your heart said "You are not the enemy"
(Yeaaaaah)
What if your heart said "Dawn of a brave new world"
(What if your heart said)
What if your heart said "Baby go and spread my word"
(Yeaaaaah)It's your time and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
You were born to rage
It's your life and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
You were born to rageShow your face you were born to rage so come on!
It's your time and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
You were born to rage
It's your life and never waste a second of it
You were born to rage
Show your face you were born to rage so come on!It's your time
It's your life
