

Heart Attack

Trey Songz

[Intro]

Woop, turn the lights on
Oh woah, oh woah

[Verse 1]

We share something so common, but still so rare
And I'm in awe, never been here before
So high, we're still climbing, even here inside these walls
Breaking each others hearts and we don't care 'cause we're so

[Chorus]

In too deep, can't think about giving it up
But I never knew love, would feel like a heart attack
It's killing me, swear I never cried so much
'Cause I never knew love would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had
Oh woah, never knew love, oh woah
Would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had

[Verse 2]

All the times when I know I should be smiling
Seem to be the time that I frown the most Can't believe that we're still surviving
'Cause I'm slowly breaking down even when I hold you close
And if I lose you, I'm afraid I would lose who
Who I gave my love to
That's the reason I stay around
Even though I fell way

[Chorus]

In too deep, can't think about giving it up
But I never knew love, would feel like a heart attack
It's killing me, swear I never cried so much
'Cause I never knew love would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had
Oh woah, never knew love, oh woah
Would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had

[Bridge]

And it hurts 'cause I wanna leave
And you wanna leave, but the love keeps us together
And if I lose you, I'm afraid I would lose who, who I gave my love to
That's the reason I stay around, even though I fell way

[Chorus]

In too deep, can't think about giving it up
But I never knew love, would feel like a heart attack
It's killing me, swear I never cried so much
'Cause I never knew love would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had
Oh woah, never knew love, oh woah
Would hurt this fucking bad
The worst pain that I ever had
