

Back to Beautiful (feat. Alan Walker)

Sofia Carson

They say
You're not good enough, you're not brave enough
You should cover up your body
Tell me, watch my weight
Gotta paint my face
Or else no one's gonna want me Why do we say this to ourselves?
And even worse to each other?
Why do we say this to ourselves? Ooh We gotta, get back to beautiful
Gotta, get back to beautiful
All these words, starting wars
Over who can hurt who more
Gotta, get back to beautiful (Get back, beautiful)
(Get back, beautiful)
Judging who we love, judging where we're from (Where we're from)
When did this become so normal?
Celebrating hate is now a commonplace
(Commonplace)
When did this become so normal? Why do we say this to ourselves?
And even worse to each other?
Why do we say this to ourselves? Ooh
Why do we say this to ourselves? (Why)
And even worse to each other? (Ooh)
Why do we say this to ourselves? Ooh We gotta, get back to beautiful
Gotta, get back to beautiful (Come back, oh)
All these words, starting wars
Over who can hurt who more
Gotta, get back to beautiful
(Get back, beautiful)
(Get back, beautiful) We gotta, get back to beautiful
Gotta, get back to beautiful (Come back, oh)
All these words, starting wars
Over who can hurt who more
Gotta, get back to beautiful (Get back, beautiful)
(Get back, beautiful)
