

You're My Everything

Gladys Knight & The Pips

(You're my everything, yeah, yeah)

You surely must know magic boy
Because you changed my life
It was dull and ordinary
But, you made it sunny and bright, oh yes you did

Now, I was blessed the day I found you
Gonna build my whole world around you
You're everything good
And you're all that matters to me

When my way was dark and troubles were near
Your love provided the light so I could see, boy
Just knowin' your love was near when times were bad
Kept the world from closin' in on me, boy

I was blessed the day I found you
Gonna build, gonna build my whole world around you
You're everything good
And you're all that matters to me

Baby, you're part of every thought I think each day
Your name is in every phrase my lips say
Every dream I dream is about you
Honey I couldn't live without you

Baby (Baby), baby (Baby), baby, baby
You're my everything, you're my everything, oh yes you are (Yes you are, you're my everything, boy)

You're the boy I sing about, in every love song
Every love song I sing
(You're my everything)
You're my winter baby, oh
My summer, my fall and my spring
(You're my everything)

Now, now, I was blessed the day I found you
Gonna build my whole world around you

You're everything good boy and you're all that matters to me
Baby, baby, you're my everything, you're my everything, oh yes you are You're my everything, you're my everything, you mean the world to me
Oh yes you are
You're my everything
