Pink Lyrics Dolly Parton, Monica, Jordin Sparks, Rita Wilson & Sara Evans

[Intro: Dolly Parton]

Hmm-hmm, hmm-hmm, hmm[Verse 1: Dolly Parton & Monica]

Someday

Pink will just be a color
Not a ribbon to remember
A best friend or a mother

Someday

You won't have to put a wig on
And a baseball cap will just be a hat
Not somethin' to hide under
'Cause your hair is gone
Someday's comin' any day

[Chorus: Jordin Sparks & Dolly Parton]

You gotta believe without seeing
You gotta keep going, keep breathing
When you face a day that feels like you're gonna break
Lean on the ones that love you
The guardian angels above you
And think, about when pink

Was just another color[Verse 2: Rita Wilson, Sara Evans & Monica]

Someday

Your time will be your own time
No waiting rooms or doctor news, that
Make you wanna cry
And someday

We're gonna have a party
We'll pop pink balloons, with people who know
Love can be an army (Is an army)
Someday, it's coming any day

[Chorus: Monica, Rita Wilson, Dolly Parton, Sara Evans, & {Jordin Sparks}]

You gotta believe without seeing
You gotta keep going, keep breathing
When you face a day that feels like you're gonna break
Lean on the ones that love you
The guardian angels above you
And think, about when pink
Was just another color

{Ooh-ooh

Just another color

Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, oh}[Bridge: Dolly Parton]

Someday and it's coming any day [Chorus: Sara Evans, Dolly Parton, Rita Wilson, Monica, & {Jordin Sparks}]
You gotta believe without seeing
You gotta keep going, keep breathing
When you face a day that feels like you're gonna break
You gotta believe without seeing (You gotta believe)
You gotta keep going, keep breathing (You gotta keep going)
When you face a day that feels like you're gonna break (Oh that you're gonna break)
So lean on the ones that love you
{The guardian angels above you
And think, about when pink}
Was just another color
Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh
Just another color (Just another color)
