

Frosty The Snowman

Ella Fitzgerald

Who's debonair with the tall silk hat?
Muffler of wool and a tummy that's fat?
King for the day, and he loves the road
With a broomstick can and a heart of gold That's Frosty the Snowman
He's a jolly, happy soul
With a corn cob pipe and a button nose
And two eyes made out of coal Frosty the Snowman is a fairytale they say
He was made of snow
But the children know
How he came to life one day There must have been some magic
In that old silk hat they found
For when they placed it on his head
He began to dance around
Oh, Frosty the Snowman
Was alive as he could be
And the children say
He could laugh and play just the same as you and me Frosty the Snowman
Knew the sun was hot that day
So he said let's run
And we'll have some fun now before I melt away So down to the village
With a broomstick in his hand
Running here and there all around the square
Saying catch me if you can He led them down the streets of town
Right to the traffic cop
And he only paused a moment when
He heard him holler, "Stop!"
For Frosty the Snowman had to hurry on his way
But he waved goodbye
Saying don't you cry
I'll be back again some day Thumpety thump thump, thumpety thump
Look at Frosty go
Thumpety thump thump, thumpety thump
Over the hills of snow
