

Pretty When You Cry

Lana Del Rey

[Verse 1]

All the pretty stars shine for you, my love
Am I that girl that you dream of?
All those little times you said that I'm your girl
You make me feel like your whole world

[Pre-Chorus]

I'll wait for you, babe
That's all I do, babe
Don't come through, babe
You never do

[Chorus]

Because I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry

[Verse 2]

All those special times I spent with you, my love
They don't mean shit compared to all your drugs
But I don't really mind, I've got much more than that Like my memories, I don't need that

[Pre-Chorus]

I wait for you, babe
You don't come through, babe
You never do, babe
That's just what you do

[Chorus]

Because I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry

[Bridge]

Don't say you need me when
You leave and you leave again
I'm stronger than all my men

Except for you
Don't say you need me if
You know that you're leaving
I can't do it, I can't do it
But you do it well

[Chorus]

'Cause I'm pretty when I cry, I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry, I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry, I'm pretty when I cry
I'm pretty when I cry, I'm pretty when I cry
