

Border in My Heart

Watsky

I know the forces
Of good and evil
Wage a war inside of every heart
But I won't build a, build a border
Inside my heart!

I'm coming in strong
If you're not angry, what the fuck's wrong with ya?
I'd rather be a lover than a fighter
But if you don't fight, the fight'll come get ya anyway
The stakes are too high
If you ride the fence, you picked the wrong side
Being polite has been beyond tried
If you're sick of shit, think it's time to say

This is not normal
This is not normal
Don't let this be normal

I know the forces
Of good and evil
Wage a war inside of every heart
But I won't build a, build a border
Inside my heart!

If I don't respect ya, I don't salute ya
I don't respect ya, I don't expect to
I'm no saint, but these are no humans
Fill up their purse and watch all the world ruined
If that was too vague, Donald J. Trump is a thug and a plague
And if he signed your check you belong at The Hague
Hey! Everybody sing it now

This is not normal
This is not normal
Don't let this be normal

I know the forces of good and evil

Lube up your ears, screw what you hear
The future's unclear, but this is not normal

Wage a war inside of every

(Not normal)
But I won't
(Not normal)
But I won't
(Not normal)
But I won't
(Not normal)
