

Take Yourself Home

Troye Sivan

I'm tired of the city, scream if you're with me
If I'm gonna die, let's die somewhere pretty, oh
Oh, oh Sad in the summer, city needs a mother
If I'm gonna waste my time, then it's time to go
Take yourself home Talk to me
There's nothing that can't be fixed with some honesty
And how it got this dark is just beyond to me
If anyone can hear me, switch the light, ooh
And happiness is right there where you lost it
When you took the bet
Counting all the losses that you can't collect
Got everything and nothing in my life I'm tired of the city, scream if you're with me
If I'm gonna die, let's die somewhere pretty, oh
Oh, oh
Sad in the summer, city needs a mother
If I'm gonna waste my time, then it's time to go
Take yourself home
Take yourself home Who you really tryna be when you see your face?
Is it worth it tryna win in a losing game?
Well, it's all waiting for ya
And boy, I know you're eager
But it just might destroy you
Destroy you (Destroy you, yeah)
I'm tired of the city, scream if you're with me
If I'm gonna die, let's die somewhere pretty, oh (Oh)
Sad in the summer, city needs a mother
If I'm gonna waste my time, then it's time to go
Take yourself home
Take yourself home Take yourself home
(Home, home, home)
