

Already Ready

Dan + Shay

Got a call from a friend
Said you should come over
All your friends
Are already over
Took you 20 minutes just to find a dress
Do you like the dress, I say yes
Green, red, yellow, blue, yeah they're all just right on you
Don't worry you look beautiful yeah
Hair up, hair down
Another 20 minutes to get out the house
Call a cab and we jump in it
Finally walk in
I'm already thinking bout leaving
Gotta get you back in my shirt
Get you out that dress
Get you out them shoes that you like so much
Everybody at the party's checking your body
I don't even mind it cause you're coming with me girl
And I know, it's only 7: 32
But looking at you, I'm already ready to go
I'm already ready, are you ready, cause I'm ready to go
Wall to wall, way too many people
The noise, the crowd, I don't even see 'em
Cause I'm talking to you, you're talking to me
I ain't trying to be antisocial
Everybody's probably wondering why we're standing in the corner all alone
Girl you're so beautiful, yeah
You look good in the lights, but I wanna see you in the dark Kiss your lips, it's only been a minute since we walked in
I'm already thinking bout leaving
Gotta get you back in my shirt
Get you out that dress
Get you out them shoes that you like so much
Everybody at the party's checking your body
I don't even mind it cause you're coming with me girl
And I know, it's only 7: 32
But looking at you, I'm already ready to go
I'm already ready, are you ready, cause I'm ready to go
Go
We're halfway out the door
I can't wait anymore
Yeah I know we just walked in

I'm already thinking bout leaving
Gotta get you back in my shirt
Get you out that dress
Get you out them shoes that you like so much
Everybody at the party's checking your body
I don't even mind it cause you're coming with me girl
And I know, it's only 7: 32
But looking at you, I'm already ready to go
I'm already ready, are you ready, cause I'm ready to go
I'm already ready to go
