

Like Home (feat. Alicia Keys)

Eminem

Yeah
Shout to everybody
Who's been on this trip with me
You don't have to agree
But if you feel like me Someone get this aryan a sheet
Time to bury him, so tell him to prepare to get impeached
Everybody on your feet
This is where is where terrorism and heroism meets, square up in the streets
This chump barely even sleeps
All he does is watch Fox News like a parrot and repeats
While he looks like a canary with a beak
Why you think banned transgenders from the military with a tweet?
He's trying to divide us, this shit's like a cult
But like Johnny, he'll only unite us
'Cuz nothing drives us inside like this fight does Similar to when two cars collide 'cuz our spirits are crushed and this spot's a tight one
But here the jaws of life come to pull us from the wreckage
That's what we get pride from
When we can't from our stars and stripes cuz this type of pickle we're in is hard to deal
But there's always tomorrow still
If we start from the scratch like a scab for scars to heal
And band together for Charolettesville
And for heaven's fallen heroes
Fill his wall with murals
Hit the damn reset, start from zero
This is our renewal, spray tan get rid of
Get a brand new, better, America
And here's to where we're from This is where it all began, all began (stand up)
Here's to the land that made me
And made me who I am, who I am (hands up)
Here's to the land that raised me
There's hope for the only place that really knows me
From the cracks in the road that drove me
There's no place like home Didn't wanna piss your base off, did ya?
Can't denounce the klan, 'cuz they play golf with ya
You stay on Twitter, way to get your hate off, Nazi
I do not see a way y'all differ, at all
And all you got are race cards but get a swastika with your name carved in it should be your trademark, 'cause hate's all you played off

 And you just think it played off, so I guess it pays to feed off the chaos
 So basically, you Adolf Hitler
 But you ain't ruining our country, punk
 Or taking our pride from us
 You won't define us
 'Cuz like a dictionary, things are looking up
 So much, got a sprained neck
 Know we can rise up
 Against this train wreck and take a stand
 Even if it mean sitting when they raise the flag
 This ain't the Star Spangled Banner
 This man praised a statue of General Lee, because He generally hates the black people, degrades hispanics
 Take it back to the Shady national convention
 Wish I would have spit on him before
 I went to shake his hand at the event
 Or maybe had the wherewithal to know that he was gonna try to Thought he was gonna tear apart a sacred land
 We cherish and stand for, so Hands in the air, let's hear it for
 The start of a brand new America
 Without him, we can be proud of where we're from
 And here's to where we're from This is where it all began, all began (stand up)
 Here's to the land that made me
 And made me who I am, who I am (hands up) Here's to the land that raised me
 There's hope for the only place that really knows me
 From the cracks in the road that drove me
 There's no place like home I won't give up
 I won't give up on my home, that so many died for You already know that I won't give up I won't give up on my home, that so many died for
 You already know there's no place like home, no place like home
 Wherever I go, no place like home
 No place like home, no place like home
 Wherever I go This is where it all began, all began (stand up)
 Here's to the land that made me
 And made me who I am, who I am (hands up)
 Here's to the land that raised me
 There's home for the only place that really knows me
 From the cracks in the road that drove me
 There's no place like home
