

My Name

Matthew Morrison

It's always early
It's always dark when I leave
I check myself in the mirror
And he looks a lot like me

It could be London
But he's followed me back home
I'm not complainin'
But I wish he'd just stay in Rome
He isn't always right, you know...

They smile, they came
But they don't know my name
We only look the same
And they don't know my name
Oh, turn the lights off
Turn all the lights off
All this love surrounds me
But I'm still alone

Your expectations
I'm never gonna measure up
I'm not a hero
I know I never was taught enough

They're screaming at me
And I just wanna scream right back
They wouldn't believe it
I know he'd never do a thing like that
It's taken all I've got not to crack

They smile, they came
But they don't know my name
We only look the same

And they don't know my name
Turn all the lights off
All this love surrounds me

But I'm still alone

I only have to play the part
But that part is only part of me
Once in a while, let down my guard
But it's hard, afraid of what you'll see
I didn't mean to disappoint
But I'm not, who you think I am...
I'm maybe not, who you think I am

They smile, they came
But they don't know my name
We only look the same
But they don't know my name

They smile, they came
But I'm still alone...
