

Silence

Sarah McLachlan

Give me release
witness me
i am outside
give me peace Heaven holds a sense of wonder
and i wanted to believe that i'd get caught up
when the rage in me subsides
In this white wave
i am sinking
in this silence
in this white wave
in this silence
i believe
Passion chokes the flower till she cries no more possesing all the beauty hungry still for more Heaven holds a sense of wonder
when the rage in me subsides
In this white wave
i am sinking
in this silence
in this white wave
in this silence
i believe
I can't help this loning comfort me
i can't hold it all in
if you won't let me
Heaven holds a sense of wonder
when the rage in me subsides
In this white wave
i am sinking
in this silence
in this white wave
in this silence

i believe
