

Take Me Home

Bryce Vine

I was like - excuse me and my awkward approach
I just, noticed you were running out of rum in your coke
And I was hoping I could interest you in witty reppore
And if you're game we could kick it like your keeping the score You're, so exotic in all of the right ways
Eyes like green diamonds, skin a Milan Beige
Hair's a black currant that matches your style great
With a jacket you bought from Urban and your pretty bird chain She said I look mixed
I said, "I'm dark white."
She said I seem fun, I said you damn right
Then she laughed and said Alegra's the name and I've been waiting for a guy like you all day So,
HEY, we don't really got another place to go
And I know you don't wanna sleep alone so take me home tonight
So I hit her with a, OH, why don't we got a better place to be
Tomorrow doesn't mean a thing to me, so take me home tonight
She's 24 from New York said she misses the cold
And 5'9", Gemini, favorite color is gold
And finished school back in June, studied fashion at FIDM
And yeah, she had a boyfriend but she's not longer with him And I'm like, BARTENDER, think we'll need another round
Girl its early now and later we can move about the town
I'm bad at times but the chemistry's clear
That's a little joke, really though, I'm being sincere So maybe we could take a little ride
Let your stresses be irrelevant tonight
She's like, I know your trouble but we're one in the same
And I've been looking for a guy like you all day So, HEY, we don't really got another place to go
And I know you don't wanna sleep alone so take me home tonight
So I hit her with a, OH, why don't we got a better place to be
Tomorrow doesn't mean a thing to me, so take me home tonight
Girl all I need
Is some release
Oh take me home tonight Don't need no sleep
Between your sheets
Girl, just take me home tonight Girl all I need
Is some release
Oh take me home tonight Don't need no sleep
Between your sheets
Girl, just take me home tonight Maybe we could take a little ride
Let your stresses be irrelevant tonight
I know your trouble but we're one in the same
And I've been looking for a girl like you all day So, HEY, we don't really got another place to go
And I know you don't wanna sleep alone so take me home tonight

So I hit her with a, OH, why don't we don't got a better place to be Tomorrow doesn't mean a thing to me, so take me home tonight(Girl all I need)
HEY, we don't really got another place to go
(Is some release)
And I know you don't really want to sleep alone
Oh take me home tonight(Don't need no sleep)
OH, why don't we got a better place to be (Between your sheets)
Tomorrow doesn't mean a thing to me
Girl, just take me home tonight
