Can't Get It Out

Been tryna tell you but your ego's too loud
Been tryna find you but you're stuck in the crowd
Been really tryin' for a while nowBut I, I can't get it
I, I can't get it outOh, every thought gets harder to say
When every single word gets washed away, by your
Ability to make it seem like
Life won't ever be a dream oh
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it out
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it outFeel like we're closer then we're miles apart
Feel like we're deamin' then you shatter my heart
Feel like we're movin' then we're back to the start
Oh, I, I can't get it
I, I can't get it outOh, every thought gets harder to say
When every single word gets washed away, by your
Ability to make it seem like
Life won't ever be a dream, oh
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it out
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it outEvery time I feel I'm tumbling down
I fix myself and get around
And every time I wanna scream and shout
I feel I'm caught and can't get outEvery thought gets harder to say
When every single word gets washed away, by your
Ability to make it seem like
Life won't ever be a dream, oh
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it out
Oh, every thought gets harder to say
When every single word gets washed away, by your
Ability to make it seem like
Life won't ever be a dream, oh
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it out
Oh, I've been trying but I can't get it out
