

Drank Like Hank

Brothers Osborne

[Verse 1]

Woke up dead, head poundin' like a kick-drum
Red-eyed, cotton mouthed, smoke-filled black lung
Cigarette burnin' holes in a fold-out couch
Must've had one hell of a time, no doubt

[Chorus]

And I'm hazin' out of line
Found a buzz and a hundred-proof chug and I lost my mind
Ain't got a drop left in the tank
Not a nickel left in the bank
Yeah, we partied like The Possum and we drank like Hank

[Verse 2]

I remember feedin' twenties in a honky-tonk jukebox
Stepped up and ate shit in a pot-hole parkin' lot
I gave a damn good cussin' to a big doorman
Might have dotted my eye, but I'd do it again

[Chorus]

And I'm hazin' out of line
Found a buzz and a hundred-proof chug and I lost my mind
Ain't got a drop left in the tank
Not a nickel left in the bank
Yeah, we partied like The Possum and we drank like Hank

[Chorus]

And I'm hazin' out of line
Found a buzz and a hundred-proof chug and I lost my mind
Ain't got a drop left in the tank
Yeah, we partied like The Possum and we drank like Hank

[Outro]

Yeah we sang like Mickey Gilley
Smoked ourselves silly

When we partied like The Possum and we drank like Hank
