

Diamonds

Echosmith

La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-laShe just wants to come alive, alive
Sick of waiting her whole life, for time to be on her side
Fakin' smiles just to look alright, "Hi, hi"
Another day of lonely eyes'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world?
'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world?
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-laTaste his coffee with room for doubt
No surprise no one's figured it out, she wants to hide it somehow
Fakin' whispers just to scream it out, "Hi, hi"
Another day, she's lonely now'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world?
'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world?La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la
She's on the same side
Chasing shadows one by one
Doesn't matter where she's from
Someone's daughter, someone's love'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world? (That we can change the world)
'Cause she's a diamond in a sea of pearls
When are we gonna learn that we can change the world? (Change the world)La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la (Ooh)
La-la-la-la
La-la-la-la (Diamonds, diamonds)
La-la-la-la, la-la-la
(In a sea of pearls)
