

Ram Jam

Elle King

[Intro]

Shut up

You, no

One, two

One, two, three, four

[Verse 1]

I woke up

But I had a new ceiling

There were people around, people around me as I woke up

Half of them just, happy for real

So, I just watch as the people, people woke up

There was something in the air

Couldn't tell if anybody cared

'Cause nobody spoke up

And now they're under

[Chorus]

What is to come

Will I let go

The man can only teach you

What he has been told

But now I know, nobody's ever known anything at all

[Bridge]

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh

Nobody's ever known anything at all, huh

[Verse 2]

I messed up

Could've sworn I'd been sleeping

There were people peeping, picking people right up

Now that you mentioned it, I think I smell some fear

That the way God is sweepin' people right up

There's something in the air

Oh, you better beware

We can burn it right up

'Cause now that I know

[Chorus]

What is to come

Would I let go?

The man can only teach you

What he has been told

Now I know, nobody's ever known anything at all

[Bridge]

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh

Nobody's ever known anything at all

[Outro]

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh

Nobody's ever known anything at all

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh

Oh-oh, oh-oh

Nobody's ever known anything at all, huh
