

The Warrior Princess

Joseph LoDuca

Translation #1

A woman is riding alone Her shameful past almost destroyed her She is battling the army of the dark world She is fighting in the name of good

Horns are sounding as she approaches Way must be made for a fierce battle Rhythmical drums are heard The Princess is back...

Translation #2

The Warrior Princess rides alone Her past drives her from shame Against the forces of a dark world Shes fights for good ,not for fame Horns sounds her comings, blare her name "Make way the Warrior! Cheer!" Drums beat a rhythm Let villians beware The Warrior Princess is here!
