

Clarence

This Way To The Egress

Knew a man from Galilee
Owned a station by the sea
Oh yeah! Oh no!
One peg leg and a boot of whiskey
Missing fingers, missin' teeth
Oh no! Oh yeah!

Bootshine Bill was his right hand man
Runnin' scams all over this land
Haha! Hoho!
Came to town at the break of dawn
That's the year my hair grew long
Hey hey! Hoho!

Put up signs all down the road
Through the gate pay the tolls
'Cha-ching!' It goes
Monsters, mad men, all of a dime
"Put your hands in your pockets and move on through the line!"
Da-da-da-da-da!

Bootshine Bill will see ya through
"Keep your eyes on your wallet or he'll take it from you!"
Oh yeah! Me too!

Lights go down and the kingdom com?s
End of the night we'll all be don?
(Hahaha!)

No one wants us any more
Pray to god but row for shore
If you don't find your way home
Know the blind man walks alone!

Listen up, this tales been told
About a man who bows to gold
Oh yeah! Oh no!
Lights go down and the kingdom comes
End of the night you'll all be done

No one wants us any more
Pray to god but row for shore
If you don't find your way home
Know the blind man walks alone!

So look out boys, the night is through
Can't ya see? We've come for you
Haha! Hoho!
Your lady's gone, she's up on stage
I made her mine, she walks the plague
Haha! Hoho!

Fresh new faces every town
You bring them up, I take 'em down
Haha! Hoho!
Cherish life? No sir'ee!
We take it all and spread my seed
Haha! Hoho!
