

That's How I Know You Love Me

Justin Moore

I remember back when I'd go places a desperate plan wouldn't even blow.
I ran with the outskirt crowd loud and proud burning up the road.
Pourin' whiskey on a fire, spinning tires,
never hit the breaks.
'Cause that just means you're weak. But you, you never tried to change me
You just tried to save me
And you, you found a way to trust me
Despite broken pieces of me
That's how I know you love me.
Every man tries to stand tall, never fall, or let love knock him down.
Run off through the night shoot out the lights on the heartless side of town.
Tonight here in the dark I'll hold you in my arms and never let you go
While you kiss away the ghosts Yeah you, You've never tried to change me
You just tried to save me
And you, you found a way to trust me
Despite broken pieces of me
That's how I know you love me.
That's how I know you love me.
Yeah, you never tried to break me
You just found a way to wake me
And you, you found a way to trust me
Despite the broken pieces of me
That's how I know you love me.
That's how I know you love me. Yeah, how I know you love me.
Yeah, that's how I know you love me baby
Ohh yeah yeah
