

King Wizard

Kid Cudi

This is me and my niggas, my family
And people that care about me, my fans
Fuck all these other niggas I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie Fuck all the talk
In time, they'll burn
I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie
They'll never take me alive
King Wizard!
You love that little bit of new, now throwback
Cleveland City snakeskin snapback
Niggas know the uniform, keep the brim low
You doubt him, don't know a damn thing about him
What is hip hop without him, y'all niggas just really don't know
Go, all day every day, hold on with all might
I gave the world my heart and they gave the kids insight
Yup now fuck you I ain't left
I'm outta my mind like all the time
And a nigga ain't missed one step (yet, yup) I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie
Fuck all the talk
In time, they'll burn
I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie
They'll never take me alive
King Wizard! My head hurt, gotta give me something that'll make me feel good

I remember couldn't tell a nigga nothing, man I wish you would Niggas ain't working, like me I had to put my bid in
All this rose gold I'm dipped in
Juste un clou, while I coast through clouds
That's my life babe, crystal clear, no cascade
I'm going, going I'm on a crusade
To save the kids from the weak shit
It's finally gonna be my world
Here all the girls can be my girls
Just sit back count stacks girl
Hold a nigga down all the time girl
What up? I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie Fuck all the talk
In time, they'll burn
I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie
They'll never take me alive
King Wizard! I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
In time
They'll burn
I can't decide
What if life's a lie? In time
They'll burn
In time
They'll burn
In time
They'll burn I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?
It's not my style, no lie Fuck all the talk
In time, they'll burn
I can't decide
What if life's a lie?
I push the lames aside
They'll learn
I can't ever front, know why?

Its not my style, no lie
They'll never take me alive
King Wizard! Yeah
Right back on your bitch ass
We ain't playing games hoe
Yeah, Yeah, wicked
Alright Ian
