

Two Birds

Charity Vance

We fit like two birds in a
House on the corner of 6th and 8th
I've gotta say
We fit like two birds in a
House on the corner of 6th and 8th
I've gotta say

Who would of thought that we'd be
Intertwined and quite the same
We are the only game
I wanna play
Today and tomorrow

This flower's blooming all the same
The grass gets greener every day
In our place

I'll visit every Wednesday our imaginary
Hey boy
I'll see yah soon
Miles scare all but me and you

Time whispers into my ear
And overwhelms all petty fears
He speaks so sweet

(He says)
You'll get days that equal years
Travel back to navy pier
Won't we dear
Everywhere you dare
I'll close my eyes and taste the air

This flower's blooming all the same
The grass gets greener everyday
In our place

I'll visit every Wednesday our imaginary
Hey boy
I'll see yah soon

Miles scare all but me and you

Ha ha ha hah
I'm laughing 'cuz I'm happy
And so are you
Oohooh
This beat's all the sappy
After dark 80's love tunes

Can I finish with thank you?
Thank you?

This flower's blooming all the same
The grass gets greener everyday
In our place

I'll visit every Wednesday our imaginary
Hey boy
I'll see you soon
Miles scare all but me and you

We fit like two birds in a
House on the corner of 6th and 8th
I've gotta say...

Lyrics provided by <https://www.songarea.com/>