

Before You Go

Lewis Capaldi

I fell by the wayside, like everyone else
I hate you, I hate you, I hate you
But I was just kidding myself
Our every moment, I start to replace
'Cause now that they're gone,
I like here with the words that I needed to say
When you hold on under the surface
Like troubled water running cold
Well, time can heal but this won't
So, before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make your heartbeat better?
If only I'd have known you were the storm to weather
So, before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make it all stop hurting?
It kills me how your mind can make you feel so worthless
So, before you go
Was never the right time, whenever you called
Went little, by little, by little until there was nothing at all
Our every moment, I start to replay
But all I can think about is seeing that look on your face
When you hold on under the surface
Like troubled water running cold
Well, time can heal but this won't
So, before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make your heartbeat better?
If only I'd have known you were the storm to weather
So, before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make it all stop hurting?
It kills me how your mind can make you feel so worthless
So, before you go
Will it be better off right now?
If I'd let my words come down
Maybe I guess we'll never know
You know, you know
Before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make your heartbeat better?
If only I'd have known you were the storm to weather
So before you go
Was there something I could've said
To make it all stop hurting?
It kills me how your mind can make you feel so worthless

So, before you go
