

Wish (Intro)

Adam Tell

So young, soft tongue
Who knows what she's gonna do
Bu there's cake and she wastes
No time at all to tell you
She'll be sweeter than mom
And much stronger than daddy
But there's one big wish
She saves every year for the fire
They know her desires
Her wishes come true
She believes that they do
