

Hear Me

Ricky Hil

Darling, I ain't gone
I ain't gonna spend another minute while I'm home
Even if you leave, I ain't gonna bleed
I ain't gonna be the only one that's left alive
Even if you hide, and even if I'm high
I ain't gonna be the only one sitting dry
Now, pain is on my side, but it never left my side
If you ever by my side, baby never leave my side
I tell her that I'm going, she said baby where you going?
Going outside with these people, for what
I'm just going for a drive
Being outside made me feel alive, so what I tell her mama I ain't home
I ain't gonna spend another minute alone
So fuck it, fuck it
And darling I ain't dead
I'm just living by a rhythm in my head
So what? What? I'm a long way from home now
Don't know what time I'm coming home now
If you ever hear me try to hear me
If you ever hear me try to hear me
I'm a long way from home now
Don't know what time I'm coming home now If you ever hear me try to hear me
If you ever hear me try to hear me Darling I ain't gone
I ain't gonna spend another minute alone
I've alone long
I ain't gonna spend another minute not stoned
I hate her when I ain't stoned
That's cause when I feel alone
You the only one that I want
That's cause when I keep on coming down
You're the only one that I want
And if you ain't the only one around
You're still the only one I want
Proven to you Darlin' I ain't dead
And I ain't gonna make you live by the rhythm in my head
All red, the doors and the walls I ain't gonna live by the bible or the laws
All dead, the girls and the dolls
I ain't gonna go to school to follow their rules
All said I'm a long way from home now
Don't know what time I'm coming home now
If you ever hear me try to hear me If you ever hear me try to hear me
I'm a long way from home now

Don't know what time I'm coming home now
If you ever hear me try to hear me
If you ever hear me try to hear me
Gone for long
Holding on, I'm holding on
Holding on, I'm holding on
Gone for long
Holding on, I'm holding on
Holding on, I'm holding on
Gone for long, gone for long
That's right, that's right
God can you hear me
Picture how you clear enough
Now I say I can see clearly
Gone for long
I'm a long way from home now
Don't know what time I'm coming home now
If you ever hear me try to hear me
If you ever hear me try to hear me
I'm a long way from home now
Don't know what time I'm coming home now
If you ever hear me try to hear me
If you ever hear me try to hear me
