

Alexis

Joey Trap

If you ain't seen it on the gram I found a new girl

I just wanna let you know I'm in a new world

She ain't ever been in love it's sum new to her

Not me I still remember when your toes curled

But you really more a demon then my old girl

Wanna let you know I really fuckin hate you

Swear you put me through hell tryina date you

You lied about everything

And you wasn't faithful

Everything I did for you you wasn't grateful

Every time you fucked up I'm the bad guy

Now I got a fine dime Ima brag bout

I remember when you cheated I was mad bout it

Now I hope you see me winnin and you sad bout it

Anyways this new girl been the best to me

When we in bed I call the plays like the referee

The best for me

She never disrespecting me

Rejecting me

And now I see your jealousy

It's ecstasy

I love it

I think I love her it's crazy but hey

We getting closer and close everyday

Wish I could live life with her on replay

Ain't nothing better it's such a cliché

Shit

I be getting butterflies when she next to me

When I look in to her eyes like sex to me

She been getting in my mind so mentally

And I start to get attached so heavily

But damn

(Forget it)
