

Adore

Amy Shark

I'm just gonna stand with my bag hanging off my left arm
I'm just gonna walk home kicking stones at parked cars
But I had a great night cause you kept rubbing against my arm
I'm just gonna stand with my bag hanging off my left arm
Get me a drink I get drunk off one sip just so I can adore you
I'd walk the entire street out of town just so I can be alone with you
Now go when you're ready my heads getting heavy pressed against your arm
I adore you
All off my money is spent on these nights just so we can hang out
Spacing in and out of these dresses I wanna be found
By you
Found by you
Get me a drink I get drunk off one sip just so I can adore you
I'd walk the entire street out of town just so I can be alone with you
Now go when you're ready my heads getting heavy pressed against your arm
I adore you, I adore you
I kick the gutter in tight shorts, basketball courts
Watch me watch him talk to girls
I'm known as a right hand slugger
Anybody else wanna touch my lover
Get me a drink I get drunk off one sip just so I can adore you
I'd walk the entire street out of town just so I can be alone with you
Now go when you're ready my heads getting heavy pressed against your arm
Just to adore you, I adore you
