

GHOST

Jack Harlow

Gangsta

Gangsta Grillz

I know that we got it, I might even guarantee it

When she top me up, it turn me right into a parapalegic

Pair of shoes that got the NB on 'em, make you stare and see 'em

We ain't paying for 'em, nah, you oughta know I'm wearing free ones (Ooh)

When you ghosting me, I gotta know, is there a reason?

It was so abrupt, I kind of had to think that there would be one (Be one, uh)

Conversations out of state, they asking, "Where are we from?"

I don't care about ya, I got me a chick that's Caribbean

She want me to serenade her, but you know I'm bashful (Ooh)

I got all the whipper-snappers and the lil' rascals (Yeah)

Turnt up off the way we drippin' with Tabasco (Bitch, yeah, yeah)

Old friends inquiring about the cash flow (Okay, okay)

Okay, this kush here in the gaseous state

I can't hit it, if I do I might pass away

These boys fake, please quit with the masquerade, ayy

Shit, I hear what the pastors sayin'

I could prolly use a fresh start, out the window of the TARC

I'm reflectin' on life through Cherokee Park

Thinkin' 'bout life through Cherokee Park (Woo)

I know that we got it, I might even guarantee it

When she top me up, it turn me right into a paraplegic

Pair of shoes that got the NB on 'em, make you stare and see 'em

We ain't paying for 'em, nah, you oughta know I'm wearing free ones (Ooh)

When you ghosting me, I gotta know, is there a reason?

It was so abrupt, I kind of had to think that there would be one (Be one, uh)

Conversations out of state, they asking, "Where are we from?"

I don't care about ya, I got me a chick that's Caribbean

It's a push start, I ain't gotta put the key in

Whip it real nice like a good human being

24 East, I'm in Chattanooga, TN

Yeah the barbecue Korean and my shorty muy bien, ayy

We just went from dive bars to The Colosseum

Man he's a try hard, wouldn't wanna be him

PG, I'm the GM, go 'head copyright it, TM

Go 'head copyright it (Uh)

Nah we don't wanna say too much (Much)

We ain't take her from you, no, she came to us

Ain't no steak dinner, but we made through brunch (We might)

2for on the beat, you know he came through clutch

Know he came through clutch (Came through)

I know that we got it, I might even guarantee it

When she top me up, it turn me right into a paraplegic

Pair of shoes that got the NB on 'em, make you stare and see 'em

We ain't paying for 'em, nah, you oughta know I'm wearing free ones (Ooh)

When you ghosting me, I gotta know, is there a reason?

It was so abrupt, I kind of had to think that there would be one (Be one, uh)

Conversations out of state, they asking, "Where are we from?"

I don't care about ya, I got me a chick that's Caribbean
