

Memory Lane (feat. Tom Grennan)

Bugzy Malone

Yeah Today is gonna be the day
That they throw it all back to you
And by now
You should have somehow realised what you have to do The world keeps on turning round
Bridges keep burning down
Nobody can hear you now
No matter how loud you shout Sitting in total silence
Totally lost, no guidance
You don't call no more
Nobody can find ya
Nobody can find the time like they lost their watch
They find it hard to think you went soft
They find an architect that I've promised that I make sure
He puts the building blocks in place
Start rebuilding, we've been broken since children
They keep telling me that we're only human
I don't do no silly excuses
Nobody wins we're losing
So violent and abusive
It's all battle, scars and bruises
Cuz what really
The sun shines down on me, on me, on me
And breaks my ties you'll see, you'll see, you'll see
That angel's eyes, they bleed
This life, I chose
My open wounds they show that
Memory lane is like a winding road
Today was gonna be the day
But they'll never throw it back to you
By now you should've somehow
Realized what you're not to do
I don't believe that anybody
I don't believe that anybody
Feels the way I feel about you now I just want you to know that I love you
It's a cruel world outside but
I need you to know that I got you
Such a forgetful place and
I don't want them to forget you
Hard times have arrived and
I wanna make sure that we get through I look into your eyes sometimes
All I can see is emptiness, no resemblance, no more fire
Or anything similar

When did the winter get to us , I go blind
Looking at a light so bright ?
But if I can find my way
Then I'll come back for you and I'll make it right
I wanna say something but I don't know how
I gotta keep it moving, I can't turn 'round
How did David make Goliath fall down?
What's the king if the king has lost its crown?
Today is our day
We're running away
But the night was so long and
Today is the day that we break off our chains?When the sun shines down om me, on me, on me
And breaks my ties you'll see, you'll see, you'll see
That angels die, they bleed , this life
My open wounds they show
That memory lane is like a winding road
Like a winding road
Today was gonna be the day
But they'll never throw it back to you
By now you should've somehow
Realized what you're not to do
I don't believe that anybody
I don't believe that anybody
Feels the way I feel about you nowMemory lane is like a winding road
(Yeah)
Memory lane is like a winding road
