

No More (feat. Ne-Yo)

LL Cool J

we need to have a conversation!
i made you, why would i play you?
trade home, base four, california angel swing it fast bitch, fall out, betray you when i won't even wanna hit it in a day or two.
straight home i run, well, that's the debatable
i came from, i heard i . all players do but tough times are minor to a major dude we lose sometimes, i call it paying dues.
nigger searching of the club for what's available
a year ago, my slut was on a syllable.
my feast is a famine without you to cater to if these walls could talk, what would they say to you?
not understand what we're going through
but is like you don't know me,
and i don't know you, no more,
not no more!
and it's like damn, how the hell we get here?
no idea, but we're not what we were before
could it be that i don't love you, and you don't love me no more?
that girl don't live here no more!
baby, baby, that girl no more!the dining room has an empty chair the stair case has an empty stair house full of company, but no one is here we're singing cheers while we're holding back tears to keep up appearances in front of our we play .card tricks every year black, jack, poker, make the joker disappear the ace can't breathe when it's tension in the air three clubs in one night, but nobody cares is it still not a full house without a pair you tipped your hand, but the text wasn't clear you're dealing from the bottom queen of hearts, play fair!
not understand what we're going through
but is like you don't know me,
and i don't know you, no more,
not no more!
and it's like damn, how the hell we get here?
no idea, but we're not what we were before
could it be that i don't love you, and you don't love me no more?
that girl don't live here no more!
baby, baby, that girl no more!slipping the door, you hold my hopes on all i hear is love don't live here anymore!

we can tear the house down or build some scaffold we're sitting on a fence, so where you wanna go?
you're the architect of your life, you create the blue print and before you burn the house down, think, take it slow! even artemis needs shelter, let em know! not understand what we're going through
but is like you don't know me,
and i don't know you, no more,
not no more!
and it's like damn, how the hell we get here?
no idea, but we're not what we were before
could it be that i don't love you, and you don't love me no more?
baby, baby, that girl no more!
