Night of Your Life (feat. Jennifer Hudson)

David Guetta

Boy I see ya, looking at me
I feel you eyes on me, like you gotta have me
Watching every move, like it's for you
You can't help it, you're attracted like a magnet
My love ain't easy
You gon' have to put in some work
You can't buy me a drink, thinking I'mma fall for your flirt
You gotta make it right
If you wanna go spend some time
You gotta raise the bar tonightLove me, baby treat me right
Make it eternity and not only one night
If you love me till the end of time
Then I will promise you the night of your life
So now love me, baby treat me right
And we'll be riding it from morning till midnight
If you love me till the end of time
Then I will promise you the night of your life
Night of your life, life, life
Night of your life, life, lifeI could have ya, if I wanted to Down in one knee, and following me where the bells ringing
I could claim ya, be your savior
Wrap your heart inside of these songs and you'll never leave
I could have you hindsight, round my body all up on me Boy you'll be stuck to me, if I wanted with no releaseI'll have you begging, wishing now I give a piece
Baby you'll never be the sameLove me, baby treat me right
Make it eternity and not only one night
If you love me till the end of time
Then I will promise you the night of your life
So now love me, baby treat me right
And we'll be riding it from morning till midnight
If you love me til the end of time
Then I will promise you the night of your life
Night of your life, life, life
Night of your life, life, lifeTaller than the mountains, deeper than the sea
You're boiling hot for me, one hundred degrees
I want you to love me like you're afraid to dream
Let's make tonight a realitySo now love me, baby treat me right
And we'll be riding it from morning till midnight
If you love me till the end of time
Then I will promise you the night of your life

Night of your life, life, life
Night of your life, life, life
Night of your life, life, life
