

Good Girls Like Bad Boys (feat. Flo Rida)

Jadyn Maria

Ummm... Yeahh... You're not exactly the guy I can bring home to my mama
But what she don't know won't hurt her
You're so controlling, so demanding,
Like to take advantage of me,
But I don't mind, no sir. You get under my skin, such a sweet sin
Just like a disease that keeps on, keeps on eating at me,
I know good and well you're good for nothing
They say you don't deserve me
But it really don't disturb me. Why do all good girls like the bad boys?
Like a moth to a flame, I guess I'm back here again.
Tell me why the dark side just captures my eye,
I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling.
No Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (x2) Why do all good girls like the bad boys?
I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling, no. You're cocky and its working,
Chauvinistic and its perfect,
M-m-must be something wrong with me
I-I-I use to think that I was strong,
But I now I see how I was wrong
Because you took control of me You get under my skin, such a sweet sin
Just like a disease that keeps on, keeps on eating at me,
I know good and well you're good for nothing
They say you don't deserve me
But it really don't disturb me. Why do all good girls like the bad boys?
Like a moth to a flame, I guess I'm back here again.
Tell me why the dark side just captures my eye,
I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling.
No Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (x2) Why do all good girls like the bad boys?
I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling, no. Flo-Rida:
She can't stop this feeling no, I tell her go with the flow rightttt,
Say little mama want to know why the good girls like the bad boys,
Bad meaning good, shawty left with no choice,
So over your skin, baby phat you're so moist,
Leaving with the tins, when I'm macking invoice,
My laptop bling and a boy can't avoid
She love it going in, she don't want to be unemployed,
One reason to be a good pleasin',
Freaking daddy's little girl like I'm halfway decent,
Sure it ain't a lesson that I maybe been teaching,
Party all night and keep preaching. Why do all good girls like the bad boys?
Like a moth to a flame, guess I'm back here again.
Tell me why the dark side just captures my eye,
I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling. No Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh (x2) Why do all good girls like the bad boys?

I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling, no. I know that you're a villain but I can't stop this feeling, no.
