

In Hollywood (Everybody Is a Star)

Village People

Take a bus, a train or a plane to Hollywood

Go there and then change your name

You dye your hair out there, it's part of the game

You're gonna be a star, a big star

Tell the bank that you need a loan

Go sell your house and every little thing that you own

You'll make your dream, forget what you've ever known

You're gonna be a star, a big star

Now you're set, so follow the rules

Don't need a house unless it comes with the pool

Buy some new clothes and then you've got to be cool

You're gonna be a star, a big star

In style, L.A. style

(Get in style)

Say hi as you cruise by

(Saying hi)

(Listen here)

'Cause everybody is a star in Hollywood

(Well)

Everybody is a star in Hollywood

(Alright)

Let's go to Hollywood so good

(Holly, Hollywood, Holly, Hollywood)

(Holly, Hollywood, Holly, Hollywood)

Come on

Now it's time to get a new car

You know the kind that has a phone and a bar

You'll soon forget the person you really are

You're gonna be a star, a big star

Tell your friends you walked off the stage

Then slip outside and call and have yourself paged

Get on the phone and scream as though in a rage

You're gonna be a star, a big star

In style, L.A. style

(Be in style, L.A. style)

Say hi as you cruise by

(Say hi as you cruise by)

(Listen here)

'Cause everybody is a star in Hollywood

(Well)

Everybody is a star in Hollywood

(Alright)

Let's go to Hollywood so good

(Holly, Hollywood, Holly, Hollywood)

(Holly, Hollywood, Holly, Hollywood)

Well, alright

Studio, lights, music, action

(What, lights, music, action)

Dance, dance, dance, dance

(Dance, dance, dance, dance)
