

ERASE U

The Kid LAROI

I thought you was all mine, yeah
You said that you love me but it's all lies, yeah
Should've known from when I looked in your eyes
I could erase you from my mind and I'd be alright, yeah
Yeah, I'd be alright
Said you was all mine, yeah
You said that you love me but it's all lies, yeah
Should've known from when I looked in your eyes
I could erase you from my mind and I'd be alright, yeah
Yeah I'd be alright
Shit ain't been the same since you left now
Only thing going through my head is regret now
When I found you I almost left my bread now
You got me stressed out Left me to get let down
Somehow, I'm still wishing you the best now
I think it's better now
'Cause you really put my ego up in check now
And I'm upset now
Ever since you let me know
And I'm upset now
'Cause I thought you was all mine, yeah
You said that you love me but it's all lies, yeah
Should've known from when I looked in your eyes
I could erase you from my mind and I'd be alright, yeah
Yeah I'd be alright
Said you was all mine, yeah
You said that you love me but it's all lies, yeah
Should've known from when I looked in your eyes
I could erase you from my mind and I'd be alright, yeah
Yeah I'd be alright
