

Back On the Wagon

Brett Young

Yeah

I put you out like a cigarette
Poured you down the drain with no regrets
Went through 11 of those 12 steps
But 11 ain't enough I guess
One phone call on a lonely night
And we're both back at the startin' line
Now there's ashes in the ashtray,
Lipstick on the bottle
Back on the same road, goin' full throttle
And just like that

We go fallin' off the wagon
Got ourselves a real bad habit
Girl, you got me actin' like an addict
All messed up, no matter what
You know I just gotta have it
Even though it winds up tragic
Tonight whatever happens, happens
And tomorrow, we'll get back on the wagon
Yeah

We'll get back on the wagon, whoa

So let's let both ends of the candle burn
Love like the mornin' light won't hurt
Wake up lyin' 'bout lessons learned
'Cause that's just what we do
Again and again

We go fallin' off the wagon
Got ourselves a real bad habit
Girl, you got me actin' like an addict
All messed up, no matter what
You know I just gotta have it
Even though it winds up tragic
Tonight whatever happens, happens
And tomorrow, we'll get back on the wagon
Whoa

Tomorrow we'll do what we should
But tonight is gonna hurt so good
Fallin' off the wagon, yeah

We've got ourselves a real bad habit
And we just gotta have it, so

We go fallin' off the wagon
Got ourselves a real bad habit
Girl, you got me actin' like an addict
All messed up, no matter what
You know I just gotta have it
Even though it winds up tragic
Tonight whatever happens, happens
And tomorrow, we'll get back on the wagon
Whoa, whoa
Yeah tomorrow, we'll get back on the wagon
