

Future Looks Good

OneRepublic

Woke up
Starin' at this, starin' at this empty room
Looked at
Thousand different pictures that your mother took of you
You see, I had
This crazy dream, last night this man, he talked to me
He told me
Everything that's good and bad about my history
But he said that you are
You are the future
He said that you are
You are the future
And the future looks good
The future looks good
Oh, call me
Anytime that, every time you're losin' it
And tell me
Anyone and everyone who makes you feel like shit
Because you know
Anybody, everybody else can lie
But honey, I won't
See you with a, see you with a broken set of eyes
I swear that you are
You are the future
I say that you are
You are the future
And the future looks good
Oh, yeah
The future looks good
Oh, yeah
The future looks good
Oh, yeah
The future looks good
Oh, yeah
Wooo, wooo
Wooo, hey
Wooo, wooo
Wooo
Wooo
Woke up
Starin' at this, starin' at this empty room
Looked at
Thousand different pictures that your mother took of you
