

I Only See You with My Eyes Closed

Reckless Kelly

Cold Idaho moon

These memories of chasing you

Whatever I was thinkin'

All that I didn't know yet

The moon was bright enough to turn out the headlights

Lost innocence of youth

Excuses that I sold to you

Wherever I was going

All of the roads led back home

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Lost you to the sound of the Nuremberg Bells

Stolen from a dream and it hurt like hell

Whatever I was dreaming what little I remember

Scatters like dust and fades in to the day

This city is filled with bad connections

Lost translations, wrong connections

Whenever you were searching

I was hiding in shadows, hiding in prose

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed

Now I only see you with my eyes closed
