

Cool Head (feat. Kid Cudi)

Travis Barker

Relaxed and I'm thinking did I forget to mention
I'm sitting on a location, I call it new station
Destructing my best hope is
Motherfuckers ain't got no life, no vision, no ambition
No will to do a damn thing, they often spit easy
And talk down on a nigga make it shinin'
How is that bubbly? So menstrual psychology
Tamponing, stressful, overloaded jealous niggas
I'm in my own world, literally no bullshit, baby
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head
Ain't nobody tripping on, I'm cool, relax
I keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off
I keep making that money, that money, that money
Yeah, keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off
Ain't nobody tripping on, I'm cool, relax
I, I keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off
I keep making that money, that money, that money, yeah
I keep my mojo on, damn, no turning me off
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head
They stay living right in their own lies
In their own gaze, in their holes
We see beyond the hate, we see a poor soul
Who hasn't been told they only know what they've been shown
They stay living right in their own lies
In their own gaze, in their holes
We see beyond the hate, we see a poor soul
Who hasn't been told they only know what they've been shown
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head now, whoa
I keep a cool head, I keep a cool head
