

Galaxy

Chloe x Halle

You've been tryin' to doubt me
You've been tryin' to out me
You've been tryin' say stuff
I've been tryin' to pray up
Why you tryin' to pray now?
Prayed it all away now
This shit's tangled messed up
Get out of my head

Oh

'Cause I don't play like that, play like that
I don't need all that, have it back
And now I'm moving on, now I'm moving on
Moving on, now I'm moving on
Why you play like that, roll like that
You hold me back let go of that
Moving on, now I'm moving on
Moving on

Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Imma throw you back into the..
Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Fly with the stars yeah we'll be here for a while
Seein' that my love only for you
Wonderful night won't you float for a while
Leave all my love, only love for you
You've been trying break me
You've been tryna' shake me
But like the earth I'm steady
I won't lose it

And time and time again you say my name
But if you wanna go then we can take it up to space
Baby darling you should be ashamed
Imma have you walking deep into the milky way

Hey hey

'Cause I don't play like that, play like that (Why you play like that)
I don't need all that, have it back
(Need all that)
Moving on, now I'm moving on
(Moving on oh)

Moving on, now I'm moving on
Why you play like that, roll like that

You hold me back let go of that
Moving on, now I'm moving on
Moving on
Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Imma throw you back into the..
Imma throw you back into the galaxy
Fly with the stars yeah we'll be here for a while
Seein' that my love only for you
Wonderful night won't you float for a while
Leave all my love for you, love for you
