

This Is a War

All Saints

You weren't holy
That face
Written in the bad books, trouble all the way
Just like a fighter
Me, same story, same page
I was a ladder searching for a fame
Together, we burned brighter Looking for a battle
Ready for the pain
Knew it was a challenge, everything's a game
Seemed easy, seemed so easy
If I gotta fight
For the right
To be loved and to love
Then this is a war
If we can't be free
You and me
To be loved and to love
Then what is this for?
If this is a war You wasn't perfect
That I thought it was cool
You were my bad boy straight out of the hood
Yeah, it was all good
You, a little tragic
Me, a little bold
Dangerous ecstatic
We couldn't be told
Together, we weren't alone
Looking for a battle
Ready for the pain
Knew it was a challenge, everything's a game
Seemed easy, seemed so easy If I gotta fight
For the right
To be loved and to love
Then this is a war
If we can't be free
You and me
To be loved and to love
Then what is this for?
If this is a war Will the words ever make a change?
We've come too far to turn back now
Stronger together, we are one
One word, a million miles away

Two hearts, one life
One you and I If I gotta fight
For the right
To be loved and to love
Then this is a war
Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
If we can't be free
You and me
To be loved and to love
Then what is this for?
If this is a war War
If this is a war Tell me, tell me, tell me, tell me
If this is a war You weren't holy
That face
Together, we burned brighter, brighter, brighter, brighter
