

Fade Away

Logic

All day (all day), everyday (everyday)
We was on that block until we made a way (we made a way)
Day to day, man that's the only way (only way)
They gon' know my name until it fade away Fade away, fade away
They gon' know my name until it fade away
(Way, way, way), fade away
They gon' know my name until it fade away I been there, I done that, done that, this rap shit I run that Motherfucker this far from a comeback, if one of us fall then we run back Can't let that social worker just snatch up my kid, gotta get my son back Cause when they coming through that system don't give a fuck about you Everybody gonna die, gonna go one day, maybe it'll happen on a Monday
Drop into work and get hit by a Hyundai, fuck it, let it all go one day
I know, I'mma get it like this, living that life while they all reminisce Never regretted, the second I said it I feel like I'm smarter, I read it on Reddit
You're fucking pathetic, my etiquette murder ya predicate, bitch I'm ahead of it, yeah
Yes I'mma die but I don't wonder why in the hell I'mma ride in the dead of it yeah
Yeah I know, know, life on Earth is so unpredictable Okay-kay, hold up let me say, yes I fade away
Fade away, fade away
They gon' know my name until it fade away
(Way, way, way), fade away
They gon' know my name until it fade away Tell me what I wouldn't wanna give for a life like this, arm and a leg quite like this Fuck around wanna fight like this, take a hike like this
So I might just, might just, I don't know Reinvention, that's my intention, want so much more than this third-dimension That's not to mention my true ascension is a bigger picture - no metaphor I'm being real with ya but it will hit ya like, "goddamn!"
Going HAM, full of all of them in a spaceship, I'm in another system
So futuristic, on another mission but back on Earth everybody bitchin', I been in the kitchen
Livin' my life - no inhibition, life to death with no intermission
Now the good book said we all the same, and we kill each other but it's all in vain
And we all to blame, can't see the picture when inside the frame
Real talk, I wanna grip the grain and just ride with ya, build a family then die richer
When ya get to heaven I'mma come and get ya Sit back and really get the picture
This life, yeah, it done ate away, hard times never stayed away
But one thing I know day to day, I'mma do somethin' 'fore I fade away
Fade away, fade away
They gon' know my name until it fade away
(Way, way, way), fade away

They gon' know my name until it fade away
You get the upgrade? Nah, man. It's the same shit with a different title! That's not true, Kai What the fuck?! Yeah, man. They didn't just upgrade features, they enhanced her AI So she can actually hold a conversation? Yeah. Ask her yourself Uhh, what am I thinking, Thalia? Kai, I'm a program in the ship's interface, not a psychic
Damn, girl! Yeah, that's another thing now. She's unisex
What?! Thalia, integrate Y chromosome feature Sure thing, Thomas. Would you like a standard accent or something a little more exotic? Holy shit! Told you, man. The upgrade's crazy. Thalia, revert last command and run simulation
Running simulation Man, what the hell is that? Well, you can pick anyone in history, and based off a collection of data, it allows you to personally speak with them
Anybody? Anybody
Thalia, do Big Sean Alright, let me get this straight. You can speak with anyone in recorded history, like Jesus, Steve Jobs, Einstein, and you pick Big Sean? Man, fuck yeah! That's my dog! Okay. Thalia, simulate Big Sean What up Kai, you lil' bitch? Yeah, I'mma have to upgrade my shit
