

Montgomery

Bob Schneider

Montgomery Montgomery Without a friend to my name
Without a cent in my pocket
With no one to blame
With my dreams like rockets
Crashed to the ground
While the whole world was sleeping
My back to the wall
My face to the floor
I can't take no more Montgomery Montgomery So hold me in your arms
Until I grow old
Drown me in the sea
I'll do what I'm told
From now on I swear
You wont hardly known
Hardly know I'm there
Tear out my heart
I dont need it no more Montgomery Montgomery
Don't leave me here
Chase me down the street
Put your kisses on my face
Cover me in flames
And make me pay
For I don't care
Say what you wanna say
Take everything
It's all yours anyway
