

Wordless

Lauren Daigle

There isn't any fear here
There isn't any fear in love
When You come, when You come
There isn't any hurt here
That you don't overwhelm
When You come, when You come, oh
I am speechless, but I can't keep quite
And I am wordless, but I can't stay silent
Oohooh, oohooh
There isn't any rush here
So I'm just gonna wait on You
And linger longer oh
Cuz everytime I find You
I'm a little more undone
When You come, when You come
I am speechless, but I can't keep quite
And I am wordless, but I can't stay silent
Oohooh, I'm lost for words to say
Oohooh, You take my breath away
Oh you move me, and I can't defy it
You consume me, and I can't describe
I am speechless, but I can't keep quite
And I am wordless, but I can't stay silent, silent, woah
Woah, I'm lost for words to say
Woah, You take my breath away
There isn't any fear here
There isn't any fear in love
