

Up All Night (feat. Nicki Minaj)

Drake

Kush rolled, glass full, I prefer the better things
Niggas with no money act like money isn't everything
I'm having a good time, they just trying to ruin it Shout out to the fact that I'm the youngest nigga doing it Cap on, brim bent, Denzel, every timeShe ain't trying to pop that shit for pimp okay well never mind,
I I I tried to told you, Drizzy still ain't nothing nice Bracelet saying you should quit, cars saying fuck ya life
Okay now we outta hereToodles to you bitches
And if you dolled up
I got the voodoo for you bitches, yeahI'm busy getting rich, I don't want trouble
I made enough for two niggas boy stunt double Fame is like a drug that I've taken too much of
But I never ever trip
Just peace happiness and love
I got money in these jeans, so they fit me kinda snug
Plus the game is in my pocket, nigga this is what I doesI'm about whatever man Fuck what they be talking about,They opinion doesn't count,
We the only thing that matters (oooh)
So we do it how we do it
All up in your face, man, I hate to put you through itI be up all night
Whole crew's in here
Cause I don't really know who Imma lose this year (oooh)Man I love my team
Man I love my team
I would die for them niggas (oooh)Yo, if Drizzy sayin' get her Imma get her
I got that kind of money that make a broke bitch bitter
I got that kinda... wait wait fixate!
Which bitch you know made a million off a mixtape?
That was just a keep sake
Bought the president the Louis presidential briefcaseNever been a cheapskateWe got the Hawks
I ain't talking about the Peach state
Man for Pete's sake scratch that, sweepstakes (hahahaha)Fuck I look like hoe
I look like yes and you look like no
I'm a bad bitch I ain't never been a mixed breed.I'm on a diet but I'm doing donuts in a six speedM M M6 from a M2I see a lot of rap bitches on a menu
But I collect 100 thou at the venue
And pop bottles with my team
Young Money till the death of meI mean we can even rock them shoes if it don't got a comma on the price tag, you know
I mean, I mean but then again who .who.who looks at the price tag, you knowOh yeah we in this bitch
Oww, oww, oww

Oh yeah we in this bitch
Oww, oww, oww
