

Hit This Hard

Post Malone

Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah
I never thought that it would hit this hard
Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah
I never thought that it would hit this hard Don't do that, I tell you so
Don't overdose, like no, no, no
Oh my god, what have you become?
The traces of you, no, I can't see them
What have you become?
What have you turned to?
What have you taken?
Like someone hurt you
You drink that mixture
That shit gon' hit you
No, I can't fix you
No, no
Oooh, yeah
I ran through, yeah
I feel a change in the air tonight
I saw myself in a different light
(Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah)
I never thought that it would hit this hard
(Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah)
I never thought that it would hit this hard I just keep running and running and running around
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
The feeling is different instead when you wake on the ground
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
I don't know who I was in and I don't know anymore
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
In the city, we sinning, we don't ever want to come down
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
Me and J take over and we way up
Now high above the the city of angels
Smoke a boge in the sky, pass the fuego
I already dropped something in the Faygo
Only came to the club cause they paid us
Take this shit, lemme see what you made of
No sleep, little mama, we gon' stay up
Vampires on a night in Las Vegas Oooh, yeah

I ran through, yeah
I feel a change in the air tonight
I saw myself in a different light
(Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah)
I never thought that it would hit this hard
(Ooh, yeah, yeah
Ooh, yeah, yeah)
I never thought that it would hit this hard I just keep running and running and running around
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
The feeling is different instead when you wake on the ground
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
I don't know who I was in and I don't know anymore
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
In the city, we sinning, we don't ever want to come down
I just keep running and running and running around
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
The feeling is different instead when you wake on the ground
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
I don't know who I was in and I don't know anymore
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
In the city, we sinning, we don't ever want to come down
(I never thought that it would hit this hard)
